What The Christian Church Stands for.

For the Christ of Galilee,
For the truth which makes men free,
For the bond of unity

Which makes God's children one.
For the love which shines in deeds,
For the life which this world needs,
For the church whose triumph speeds

The prayer: "Thy will be done."
For the right against the wrong,
For the weak against the strong,
For the poor who've waited long

For the brighter age to be.
For the faith against tradition,
For the truth 'gainst superstition,
For the hope whose glad fruition

Our waiting eyes shall see.
For the city God is rearing,
For the New Earth now appearing,
For the heaven above us clearing,
And the song of victory.

To The Members Of The First Christian Church:—With this issue of our church directory I send you a word of greeting and of exhortation. We can ill afford to indulge in carnal boastings, which are both sinful and foolish, but we can with becoming modesty express our thanks to God that the church that bears his name and of which we are members has taken no backward step during the year, but has made substantial progress. Since the present pastorate that began Nov. 1st, 1904—This is written on June 4, 1906—over 120 have been added to the membership. Mere additions however may not count for much. China, with its four hundred millions was easily defeated by Japan in a few months simply because the latter country with its small population possessed the modern spirit and an invincible patriotism. I think I can gratefully testify to a growing spirituality in the church which is being reflected in activities in every department of our work. Membership in the various auxiliaries reached highwater mark, and despite the fact of summer heat, attendance at their meetings as also at Sunday School and church show but little signs of falling off. I pray that you may all grow in grace and in his knowledge. Life is more than doctrine; yet is the truth worth dying for. Hold fast the "form of teaching" that is able to make "wise unto salvation," and strong in every good work. This directory will help you to know your fellow-members and give you their addresses. Call upon each other, and especially upon the poor and the sick. The list of members has been submitted to a rigid revision by a committee, and represents, I think our real membership. Before this pruning the enrollment was over 400. Finally my brethren, lay hold on eternal life and cleave to that which is pure and holy.
