AN ALPHABET STORY.

A, B, and C went out to tea;
D, E, and F were really too deaf.
G, H, and I exclaimed "Oh, my!"
J, K, and L didn't feel very well.
M, N, and O didn't want to go;
P, Q, and R said it was too far.
S, T, and U had some lessons to do;
V and W said "We won't trouble you:"
X, Y, and Z stayed at home all three.

G is for George,
a Gay Grenadier, Who vows that for bullets
he'll never show fear.

G

H is for Helen:
you see what she's at—Kindly giving the
