Do "As adversaries in law, strive mightily; but eat and drink as friends."

*Shakspeare
Lauding to Shrew
Act 1. 92-2*

HON. C. A. GOODWIN

THE JUDICIARY

"Four things belong to a Judge; to hear courteously, to answer wisely, to consider soberly and to decide impartially."

Socrates

HON. I. G. LAZZELLE

THE LAWYER

"I know you lawyers can with ease,
Twist your words and meanings as
you please;
That language, by your skill made
pliant,
Will bend to favor every client;
That 'tis the fee directs the sense,
To make out either side's pretense."

ENOCH M. EVERLY, Esq.

THE CLIENT

"All wish to possess knowledge but few are willing to pay the price."

FRANK P. CORBIN, Esq.

THE WITNESS

"The wretch who often has deceived, Though truth he speaks is ne'er believed."

XX

WILLIAM S. JOHN, Esq.

THE ARGUMENT

"Close be your language; let your sense be clear;
Nor with a weight of words fatigue
the ear."

ROBERT E. GUY, Esq.

*++ "Still you keep O' the windy side of the card."
Loo y' the high!*

THE JURY

"The whole machinery of the state, all the apparatus of the system, and its varied workings, end in simply bringing twelve good men (or women) into a box."

EDWARD G. DONLEY, Esq.

THE VERDICT

"We are all elated or depressed according as fortune smiles or frowns
upon us."

JAMES R. MORELAND, Esq.

THE APPEAL

"All matters commenced with hasty violence, but languish in the end."

S. FULLER GLASSCOCK, Esq.

THE LAWS DELAY

Prof Geo F Wells
"The hard, but patience must endure
And soothe the woes it cannot cure."

~~DEAN CHARLES B. HOGG~~

THE LADIES

"And when a lady's in the case,
You know all other things give place."

HON. GEORGE C. BAKER

SHOULD A LAWYER MARRY?

"To succeed as a lawyer a man must work like a horse and live like a hermit."

HON. JOHN L. HATFIELD

THE NEW CIRCUIT

"Poise the cause in justice's equal scales,
Whose beam stands sure, whose rightful cause prevails."

HON. GEORGE C. STURGISS
