

P 8525

A LYSTE

Of ye Old Time Tunes and Worldlie
Songges which will be sungge and plaide at ye

Greate Concerte and Syngging Meeting

by a goodlie number of ye Folkes, old and youngge, to be holden at ye Methodist Meeting House, sette down at ye head of Maine Street and Sallytown, in ye greater

Morgantown, West Virginia

AT NITE

on ye fourth day of ye first week of ye third month
in the year of our Lord

MDCCCCXV

under ye auspices of

Ye Woman's Christian Temperance Union

N. B.—Ye doors of ye meeting house shall be open at earlie candle lite, and ye sound of music shall begin at 8 of ye clocke, so as to favor ye menne folks, who cannot get there chores done more earlie.

N. B.—Ye price to come in will be twenty-five pennies, without which ye must remain without.

Greate Concerte

Ye Tymist—Trustworthy Keepemup Gregg.

Ye Harpsichorder—Kitty Nimblefinger Welch (she that was a Gregg)

Firste Parte

1. March of the Puritans.
2. Yankee Doodle—Ye lyttle companie, introduced by John Paul Jones.
3. Kathleen Mavourneen—
Blarney O'Donnel Lazzelle (a respectful youngge manne)
4. Reuben and Rachel—1 womanne and 1 manne—Rachel Mehitabel Deahl and Reuben Goodenough Hoffman.
5. The Little Brown Church in the Vale—
Sandy Synghigh Pardo, Blarney O'Donnel Lazzelle, Trustworthy Keepemup Gregg, Cotton Toppe Johnston, Obe Joyful Lough, Timothy Tibbals Cox, Abinadab Allen Armstrong, Ephriam Spriggins Becket.
6. Stringtown Quartette—Rosin the Bow Crane, Hornblower Martin, Calliope Stone, Banjo Jym Hatfield.
7. O Believe me with all those Endearyng Young Charms—
Patty Peachblossom Brock (a syngger well thought on)
8. The Old Oaken Bucket—Trustworthy Keepemup Gregg and his worldlie synggers (heads to be covered).

Seconde Parte

1. Old Father Grimes—Sungge by those who loved him.
Lined by Azariah Josephus Hare. (No Spinet.)
2. Ben Bolt—Simplicity Symmes Wood (a sweet syngger).
3. Bobolinkum—A four parte syngging tune without the spinet—Priscilla Perriwinkle Elliott, Honeysuckle
Patience Garrison, Topsy Tuckerman Elliott, Polly Ann Price.
4. Rocked in the Cradle of the Deep—Ephriam Spriggins
Becket (a youngge manne with a deep voice).
5. Cousin Jedediah—Dimple Blusher Wiecking (a damsel from the Hoosier State). Ye synggers will join in at sette intervals.
6. Annie Laure—Trustworthy Keepemup Gregg and his worldlie synggers.
7. The Last Rose of Summer—
Priscilla Perriwinkle Elliott (a sweet maide).
8. Auld Lang Syne—(very tearful)—By ye greater Com-panie led by the aforementioned Tymist.

- N. B. I.—Ye people have no need to fetch candles, as ye Meetin' House will furnish ye required light.
- N. B. II.—Certain of ye Youngge menne will show ye womenne folks to a good place and carrie out ye children who do cry.
- N. B. III.—Black cats must remain without.
- N. B. IV.—Ye youngge menne and maidens will be allowed to sit together if there be no sparkin.
- N. B. V.—Ye Apple Cuttin' Club may be seated in one group, providin' ye cut no capers.
- N. B. VI.—Should any of ye olde ladies be overcome by ye stove heat, and ye pressure of ye thronge, ye youngge menne will please fetch ye water pail at once.
- N. B. VII.—Camphire and spirits of Hartshorne to be used only in extreme cases.
- N. B. VIII.—All ye from Possum Hollow will please tie horses at ye Skule House.
Horses and bay mules that carry double will be curried and fed free of charge, by order' of ye mite society.
- N. B. IX.—Ye whole companie and such of ye congregation as can sing without danger to their nabor are invited to join in the last tune with ye Synggers.
- N. B. X.—If any one be not pleased with ye concerte he can, as he retires, get his ticket back.

Piano loaned by the kindness of

S. A. PHILLIPS.